It Pays to be a Club Member!

Club membership pays! How, you ask? It pays in terms of discounts throughout the FSS... That means dollars off food, rental items, bowling, and more. Starting in September, it means discounts on trips through Outdoor Recreation, Birthday parties at the Community Center, and fees at the Golf Course. But it won’t stop there! Within the Club, members will still receive free membership meals, weekly Moola events culminating at the end of the month with Mega Moola for the whole family! Five times a month, Club members eat free, and two times a month their entire family eats free. Free entrance to our progressive Bingo and no cover charge at our lounges is also included in your membership dues.

Throughout Air Force history, our Clubs have been instrumental in maintaining esprit de corps through military tradition and hold a special place in the community as a gathering center for Air Force members of all ranks. Being a Club member brings its quality membership benefits - both “Club member” benefits as well as “card member” benefits. Such advantages clearly demonstrate and underscore the fact that membership contributes to esprit de corps and cost savings for the member.

What kind of “card member” benefits? No 1% foreign transaction fees when you use your card off base. Cash back rewards program with $2 points for purchases made on base at FSS facilities or the BX (to include gas) and Commissary, College scholarships, and the “blue star” benefits, where all fees and interest on the account is refunded while the member or any authorized user is deployed!

Bottom line, it pays to be a club member! You can’t get these types of discounts with any other organization with such low monthly dues. Become a Club member today to start enjoying your benefits, as well as $25 in coupons good towards club purchases.

It doesn’t take a genius to know what a good deal looks like!
